1. Personal data:

Name : AMRENS Heinrich
Father : Giacomo
Mother : Teresa SMITER
Born : Verchhl, Germany, 1 January 1900
Documents : IRO Control Book, No. 028709

2. A reliable informant reported that Subject, a German refugee, came to the IRO camp at Fermo from Bagnoli and that at Bagnoli as well as in Fermo he carried out philo-Soviet propaganda among the refugees. Subject, according to the informant, is well supplied with money and lives with one Alfrida AMRENS who he claims to be his wife.
3. Investigation revealed that Subject transferred from Bagnoli Camp to Fermo on 18 December 1948 together with his wife, Alfrida AMRENS, father: Izidor, mother: Angelica SPERBER, born at Vienna on 16 January 1920, bearer of IRO Control Book No. 028710.
4. When he is sober, Subject maintains a reserved and secretive attitude but when he drinks he speaks easily and loses control of himself. In fact on many occasions he treated other refugees in the camp bar offering them large quantities of liquor and on these occasions he emphatically exalted the valor of the Soviet Troops.
5. Subject is well educated, knows several languages among which Russian and Hungarian. He is said to have spent several years in a Hungarian prison as a German exile. During his stay in Fermo he has not aroused suspicions. Subject left the Fermo camp from 21 January to 1 February 1949 with his wife and went to Rome to make an application to emigrate. On 1 March 1949 he was transferred to the Bari camp with his wife.
